Negro Man Murders His Wife's Grandmother-Escapes From Officer.

(By Associated Press.)
COLUMBUS, GA., Dec. / 1.—A special from Seale, Alm., gives account of a tragedy in Russell county, near Hooks.
William Vaughn, a negro, was arrested on a charge of murder and arson. It is grandmother and set fire to her home eremating the body. The motive as-signed was robbery. The skull of the signed was robbery. The skull of the woman was crushed as was revealed by an autopsy. Vaughn was committed to jail. The deputy sheriff was bringing the negro from Pittsboro to the Scale jail, when within half a mile of the place the negro, who was handcuffed and chained, by a sudden powerful effort broke the chain and attacked the officer. Both fell to the ground from the buggy. The officer fired several shots at the negro, but, still handcuffed, he escaped into the swamp. Posses are now searching for him.

Socialist Leader Telegraphs Challenge for Duel

to Exile.

PARIS, Dec. 1.—Deputy Jaures, the Socialist leader, has telegraphed a challenged to fight a duel to Paul Derouletc, who has been in political exile since his participation in the plot to overthrow the government. The challenge grows out of the agitation of the students resulting from alleged insulting remarks about Joan of Arc, made by a professor of history at the Lyce Condercet. M. Deroulede telegraphed from Spain, declaring that the Socialists were respansible for the attacks on Joan of Arc, and claring that the Sodialists were respensible for the attacks on Joan of Arc, and adding sile was the most sublime figure in history, whereas M. Jaures was the most contemptible of her detractora. The student demonstrations in behalf of Joan of Arc were continued to-day. A party of students attempted to attack a Socialist newspaper office, but were prevented from so doing. There was another noisy demonstration on the Place de La Concorde.

(Special to The Times-Dispat.)

SALISBURY, N. C., Dec. I.—What promised to become one of the most interesting law suits here for years, over the will of the late Mrs. A. C. Davis, of this city, came suddenly to an end in Rowan Superlor Court to-day. The case went to the jury and a verdict sustaining the articles of the will was promptly returned and accepted by all concerned. It is understood that a compromise had been effected and the terms agreed upon. The amount involved in the suit was $90,000 and able counsel had been employed on both sides.

While driving a mule on the streets here yesterday afternoon Adam Pool, a young white man, was thrown from the wason and caught under the heels of the animat which had taken flight and ran away. Young Pool is badly mutred about the head and it is feared his skull is fractured.
